

Nathan M. Noh

Contact: nnoh@usc.edu or (805) 231-2680

Local Address: 3025 Royal Street Los Angeles, California 90007

Permanent Address: 3634 Lang Ranch Parkway, Thousand Oaks, California 91362

Education

University of Southern California (class of 2017)

- Presidential Scholar, Town and Gown Scholar, Dean's list
- State Farm Foundation Scholarship recipient
- Major: Applied and Computational Mathematics
- Alpha Epsilon Delta, National Honor Society
- USC Scouts – provide tutoring at local public elementary schools
- AATP – tutored elementary school students in China Town
- Alpha Phi Omega – Pledge VP of Fellowship and Omega Family Head

Westlake High School, graduated 2013

- Valedictorian, National Merit Finalist, National AP Scholar, National Honor Society
- Westlake Foundation Scholarship recipient
- Advanced Anatomy – dissected real cadavers granted by Loma Linda Medical School studying the gross anatomy of the human body from the muscles and bones to the organ systems
- Varsity Tennis, Concert Band, co-founder of the anti-bullying club

California Lutheran University, Summer 2012

- Introduction to Genetics, received an A in a sophomore level college course

Experience

Research

- Student volunteer, studied the genetic influences of natural heart regeneration in mice
- Learned techniques such as microscopy, paraffin sectioning, and dissection of the mouse heart

Tutor, June 2011 to August 2013

- Kumon Learning Center, tutored basic math to calculus, and basic English to literature analysis
- Private Tutor, tutored high school students in SAT reasoning test prep, algebra, biology, social studies, literature, and social studies. September 2011 to August 2013
- Many Mansion foundation, volunteer tutor and mentor to underprivileged kids

Los Robles Hospital, June 2012 to August 2013

- Student volunteer, responsibilities included patient admittance and discharge, front desk, blood transportation, food delivery, surgery desk, and medical tool transportation
- Los Robles Hospital Scholarship recipient

Thousand Oaks Youth Commission

- Worked with other teenagers in the Thousand Oaks community to tackle prevalent problems.
- Created a help center for bully victims, and a database to connect all the available resources in the community ranging from volunteer opportunities to possible healthcare agencies into one place with a $2,000 grant from the City of Thousand Oaks.